The New York Sun FOR 1891.

Some people agree with THE SUN's opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold of the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak its mind.

Democrats know that for twenty years THE SUN has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyalty to the true interests of the party it serves with fearless intelligence and disinterested vigor.
At times opinions have differed as to the best means of accomplishing the common purpose; it is not THE SUN's fault if it has seen further into the millstone.

Eighteen hundred and ninety-one will be a great year in American politics, and everybody should read THE SUN.

C. P. ATKINS,
General Passenger Agent,
Louisville, Ky.

Mr. PORTER got his census stuffed just in time to give it the benefit of the landslide. He was "stuffing" Democratic States without knowing it.—St. Louis Republic.

It is unreasonable to suppose that Mr. Blaine has a large number of "I told you so's" on hand and ready for use, when the Republican captains meet at Washington.— Nashville Herald.

SOME sorehead, or Republican, put out a fraudulent ticket at Trenton on election day containing the names of Patterson for Governor and Bond for Congress. No damage was done, however.—Dyersburgh Times.

How would it look to see ex-President Cleveland in the United States Senate from New York, with his former cabinet officials, Vilas, of Wisconsin, and Dickinson, of Michigan, as colleagues? Such a condition is among the possibilities.—Nashville American.

Ex-GOVERNOR PALMER's triumph in Illinois has inaugurated a new era in the matter of electing United States Senators. He was nominated by his party, and the Democratic legislators are as much bound to vote for him as electors are for their party candidate.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

LET no Democrat imagine that the Republicans intend to quit the field. They will marshal their forces, call up their last reserves, and make a desperate attempt in 1892. If the Democrats desire to keep in the van they must act promptly and decisively.—Memphis Appeal-Avalanche.

THE South is the coming country without doubt. See the volume of trade coming this way. Look at the great cities springing up since the war. View the immense manufactories dotted here and there, all over the Southland. * * * All this means something. It means that this country is indeed the coming country of the world.—Fulton Graphic.

Our long-suffering friends, the Prohibitionists, were beautifully licked in Nebraska, the majority against them amounting to more than 40,000. The catalogue of the defeats of the "drys" is a long one, but they don't seem to mind it, for they continue to be chipper as a chipmunk. They are just as determined as ever to mop up the sea of strong drink.—New York Sun.

It is probable that our population is at least 66,000,000. All the laws of natural increase demand that many. It is not credible that the American people have suddenly fallen into the condition of the French nation; but, if Mr. Porter's figures are correct, we must accept that conclusion. Then the race of Americans will be snuffed out, and the population of the country can be maintained only by foreign immigration.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE crop of candidates for the Speakership of the next House is already large. Every hour suggests another name. Among those most prominently mentioned are Hatch, of Missouri, Blount and Crisp, of Georgia, McMillin, of Tennessee, and Bynum, of Indiana. There will be plenty of good material to choose from. We hope the question of section will not be raised, and that the ablest man, regardless of Mason and Dixon's line, will be chosen.—Memphis Avalanche.

GENERAL NEWS

The saddle and harness makers of Nashville are on a strike.

Nearly 14,000 horses are said to be annually consumed as food in Paris, France.

The State convention of the Kentucky Farmer's Alliance is in session at Lexington.

Clarksville is to have a safety deposit and trust company with a capital stock of $50,000.

The Democrats of Indiana will keep open their headquarters until the next Presidential election.

Knoxville has an ordinance requiring the vaccination of all school children, which is rigidly enforced.

It is rumored that Robert T.
Lincoln, United States minister to the court of St. James, will resign.

Adam Monts, of Bigby Fork, Miss., who is ninety-four years old, has four hundred descendants living.

The Secretary of Interior has positively refused to allow a recount of New York City's population.

G. C. Terry, a prominent business man of Nashville, was shot and seriously wounded by a barber named Ragio last week.

Ex-Congressman Barclay Martin died at Columbia last Saturday.
He was the "oldest ex-Congressman," being eighty-seven years of age.

The Great Southern Stock Yard Company has been chartered at Nashville, with Lewis T. Baxter as president. The capital stock of the enterprise is $1,000,000.

A Brunswick, Ga., young lady had six offers of marriage last week from gentlemen who stand well in that city, but with her brother's advice, refused all of them because they occasionally take a drink at the bar.

The trial of Joseph R. Banks for the murder of Editor Littleton, of the Nashville Review more than two years ago, has again been postponed, and the bond reduced from $20,000 to $5,000. This is the fourth postponement of the case.

Jim Meadows, of Nashville, in a fit of insanity Sunday night, attempted to kill his family and burn his house. He is subject to these fits and has attempted his own life several times. He will be placed where he can do no further harm.

An impudent negro, named Tom Utley, at Fairmount, Ind., attempted to stop the demonstrations of a party of Democrats over the result of the late election, and as a result a riot took place in which a white man was shot and killed and several others were seriously hurt.

The Memphis Appeal Company has purchased the daily Avalanche plant outright and will hereafter issue the two publications as the Appeal-Avalanche. The sale was made on account of the ill health of Hon. James Phelan, owner of the Avalanche. Sixty thousand dollars, cash, was the price paid.

A horrible outrage and murder occurred near Hillman, Ala., last Saturday. A young, well dressed negro man called at the house of Mrs. Mary Calhoun, a widow lady aged about fifty-five years, and asked for food which was given him and he left, but having noticed the lady was alone he soon returned and made a criminal assault upon her person, using such force as to cause her life to be despaired of.
The negro escaped but his crime was soon discovered and blood-hounds put on his trail, which insures his capture. He will be lynched and his body riddled with bullets.

A large and extensive steel plant is to be established at Clarksville soon. The enterprise is in the hands of moneyed men and will doubtless be entirely successful.

Mr. W. D. Battle, of Summer County, Ala., has on exhibition at the Birmingham fair the largest hog in the world. He is of the red Jersey breed, twenty-eight months old, stands 3 feet 9 inches high, is 9 feet 6 1/2 inches in length, is 7 feet 4 inches around the girth, is 2 feet 11 inches across the back, and weighs 1,500 pounds.

A fight between three men Bob Patterson a farmer, and two sawmill men, Hughes and Hutchinson, occurred near Franklin last Friday.
Patterson and Hutchinson had a dispute about a log, and the former knocked the latter down with a cane, whereupon Hughes struck Patterson over the head with a scantling fatally injuring him.

The boiler of J. W. Baker & Co's. gin, at Dyersburgh, exploded November 7, completely wrecking the gin building, also the adjoining building of the Dyersburgh Machine Works, and instantly killing the engineer and fireman. All the glass in the windows for several blocks around were broken, and the boiler, weighing 2 tons, was thrown half a mile across town and struck another gin almost wrecking it. Loss $5,000.

Kenton, a small place on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, near Union City, thinks it has a sensation. W.
B. Grissom, a married business man of the place, and Miss Rosa Epps, a fascinating young lady, also of that place, disappeared simultaneously about three weeks since, and Mr. Epps, the young lady's father, and Mrs. Grissom are both of the opinion that the couple have gone west together. Grissom and family boarded with Epps and the couple had every opportunity to become intimate.

Bob King, the Seventh-day Adventist, who was tried in the circuit court and sentenced to pay a $75 fine for working on Sunday, and who appealed to the State supreme court and had the decision affirmed is in trouble. Lawyer Richardson of Dyersburgh, is going to appeal the case to the supreme court of the United States, and has telegraphed to get Don M.
Dickerson, Postmaster-General under the Cleveland Administration, to take charge of the case. The time has come when King must pay the $75 fine or go to jail. He says that it is religious persecution and that he will go to jail before he will pay a cent. King is now in charge of sheriff Jackson awaiting the result of Colonel Richardson's efforts towards securing an appeal.—Troy News-Banner.

A singular runaway is reported from South Brooklyn, N. Y. A woman named Gildersleeve, who had lived with her husband for over thirty years and born him four sons, some of whom have attained manhood, has left her home because, as she states in a letter, her husband had not furnished her means to properly clothe herself and had refused to give her the money to have her teeth attended to. She therefore secured a place at $14 a month and with her earnings for a year she said that she proposed to have her teeth properly cared for, and with the balance to buy clothes to last her dis-ting life. Then, if her husband would receive her, she intended to return to him, as she loved him.
Mr. Gildersleeve has searched in vain for his wife; says he has provided liberally for her and furnis-ed her a horse, but he did not approve of her having false teeth.
